

RECORD OF PROCEEDINGS FOR THE GOVERNING BODY OF THE CITY OF CHEYENNE
Office of City Clerk

March 3, 2022

The Governing Body of the City of Cheyenne met in special session on this date beginning at 6:00 p.m. at the Historic Depot, 121 W. 15th Street, and via electronic conference meeting, for the purpose of collective labor bargaining with the Cheyenne Professional Fire Fighters, International Association of Fire Fighters, Local No. 279. Present were: MAYOR – Patrick Collins, COUNCIL MEMBERS – Dr. Michelle Aldrich, Bryan Cook (arriving at 6:05 p.m.), Ken Esquibel, Richard Johnson, Pete Laybourn (arriving at 6:05 p.m.), Dr. Mark Rinne (arriving at 6:05 p.m.), Scott Roybal, Tom Segrave and Jeff White. Also present: Kylie Soden, Deputy City Clerk; Stefanie Boster, City Attorney; Robin Lockman, City Treasurer, and Chief John Kopper, Cheyenne Fire and Rescue. The pledge of allegiance was recited.

Mayor Collins advised the meeting would be audio recorded and available on Facebook live and stated that Wyoming State Statute §16-4-405(a)(x) of the Public Meetings Act allows the governing body to meet in executive session to consider or tender offers regarding salaries, wages or other terms and conditions of employment during negotiations with the fire fighters union and that any motion approved by the governing body to move into executive session during the special meetings would be pursuant to this section of statute.

Mayor Collins provided opening comments noting he has been meeting with the Fire Department for labor management discussions which have resulted in a better understanding of the functions of their department. Mayor Collins expressed appreciation to Chief John Kopper for the work he does with the Union and his representation of the Fire Department. The proposed Ground Rules were agreed upon and signed by the City and Union. [Clerk's note: City's Spokespersons are: Mayor Patrick Collins, City Attorney Stefanie Boster and City Council President Scott Roybal. Union's Spokespersons are: Bill Hinz, Chris Thoms and Vincent McQueeney.]

Following signing of the Ground Rules by Mayor Collins and Union Spokesperson Chris Thoms, the proposed Collective Bargaining Agreement was exchanged between the parties. Mayor Collins briefly reviewed the City's proposal which included changes to the following areas and Sections: update cover page; update table of contents; Section 2, Definitions - strikethrough on-call language and shift trainer, add Specialty Team definition; Section 4, Terms of Agreement – update date of contract; Section 8, Grievances – strikethrough Division Chief language, remove Operations, Training, and Prevention; Section 13, Management Rights – add #10 and #11 pertaining to the City's right to establish and determine specialized emergency response teams and establish job descriptions; Section 15, Staffing – under Company Strength, update equipment dispatched to structural fires to sixteen members without an aerial truck and seventeen members with an aerial ladder truck; Section 21, Classification of Employment – strikethrough on-call Prevention language and update Day Personnel's Specialty pay; Section 22, Overtime – add Fire Chief language to monitor and add overtime conversion for Day Personnel; Section 24, Specialized Teams – remove this section; Section 43, Longevity – update Day Personnel’s rate and remove 40-year language, and Section 44, Shift Trainers – remove this section and update signature page. Union Spokesperson Chris Thoms briefly reviewed the Union’s proposal which included changes to the following Sections: Section 4, Terms of Agreement – update date; Section 15, Staffing – under Company Strength, update equipment dispatched to structural fires to sixteen members without an aerial truck and seventeen members with an aerial ladder truck; Section 20, Holidays – add Juneteenth; Section 21, Wages – add $1.50 an hour base wage increase effective 07/01/2022 for all members, and Section 23, Working in a Higher Job Rank - update “acting” language. Mr. Thoms noted the change in Section 23 is similar to specialty pay.

Mr. Segrave moved to meet in executive session, seconded by Mr. Cook. Motion carried. Voting “yes” – all members of the governing body. Those present in executive session were: All members of the governing body; Stefanie Boster, City Attorney; Kylie Soden, Deputy City Clerk; Robin Lockman, City Treasurer; Chief John Kopper, Cheyenne Fire & Rescue; Andrew Worshek, Chief of Staff; Jennifer McClelland, City Council Executive Assistant; Briana Ralda-Quinonez, City Attorney Legal Assistant, and Michael Skinner, City Public Information Officer. (Clerk’s Note: executive session convened at 6:13 p.m.).

Following closure of the executive session, Mayor Collins reconvened the regular meeting at 6:38 p.m. Union Spokesperson Chris Thoms echoed the importance of the labor management discussions that occur throughout the year leading up to negotiations. Mr. Thoms announced the Union’s acceptance of the City’s proposed agreement as written. Mayor Collins announced the City’s acceptance of the Union’s proposed agreement as written.

There being no further business to come before the governing body, the meeting was officially adjourned at 6:40 p.m.

Submitted by,

Kylie Soden, Deputy City Clerk, CMC

This notice is available in alternative, accessible formats upon request.

Published: Wyoming Tribune-Eagle
March 11, 2022