Letter of Intent Purchase of Danielmark's Brewing Company, Inc.

Owners of Danielmark's Brewing Company, Inc.
209 E. 18th Street,
Cheyenne, WY 82001
January 7, 2021

Dear Daniel, Kim, Paul and Beth,

This letter is to inform you that Ryan Willson, Kevin Tighe, and Richard Hart (through an entity to be formed by them) (the "Buyer") have intent to purchase all or substantially all of the assets of Danielmark's Brewing Company, Inc. (the "Company") for $900K, which includes without limitation all real estate, business assets, inventory, and intellectual property owned by the Company. This purchase is contingent upon approval and receipt of a bank loan, approval and receipt of an SBA loan, and the seller's providing a seller's note in the amount and terms indicated below.

The agreement for a $900K sale price for the assets of the Company as well as the seller's note terms were reached using non-appraised values for the business, the real property, the furniture/equipment, and the inventory. These non-appraised values were provided by the sellers and utilized by lending entities to form preliminary loan estimates. These preliminary loan estimates were subtracted from the agreed upon sale price of $900K to determine an estimated seller's carry of $350K.

After appraised values are determined for the business, the real property, the furniture/equipment, and the inventory, and if the difference between the $900K sale price and the combined appraised values is less than $50K, the seller's note will increase in size to cover any amount not covered by the reduced anticipated loan values caused by the lower appraisals/available collateral. The seller's note, as agreed upon between sellers and buyers, is currently estimated to be $350K. The seller's note will have an interest rate of 3.5%, will feature a 20-year amortization with a 10-year balloon, and be paid in monthly installments. The buyers reserve the right to pay off the seller's note early and without penalty, and the buyers will provide extra payments towards the seller's note when financially feasible to do so.

After appraised values are determined for the business, the real property, the furniture/equipment, and the inventory, and if the difference between the $900K sale price and the combined appraised values is greater than $50K, the buyers (Ryan Willson, Kevin Tighe, and Richard Hart) reserve the right to renegotiate the sale price to a value congruent to the appraised values. If a new negotiated price cannot be reached, the buyers reserve the right to cancel the transaction entirely.

The seller's note will be subordinate to the loans provided by the lender(s). Also, all accounts payable must be paid in full prior to the company's transition to new ownership. No debt will transfer to or liabilities assumed by the new ownership.

These estimated sale/acquisition related expenses will be paid evenly by all 5 parties at 20% each:

- Accountant Business Valuation: $4000
- Bank Loan Origination Fee: $3000
- SBA/CDC Processing Fee: $3000
- Legal Closing Fee: $2500

[Type here]

These 5 parties agree to splitting the indicated sale/acquisition related expenses evenly:

- Party 1: Paul Warntz, Beth Warntz
- Party 2: Daniel Combs, Kim Combs
- Party 3: Ryan Willson
- Party 4: Kevin Tighe
- Party 5: Richard Hart

With the approximate total of estimated fees to be $12500, each party is responsible for contributing roughly $2500 towards these fees. All indicated expenses could change, but the 20% payment sharing agreement will remain in place. All other fees incurred will not be split between parties unless a separate agreement is reached for a specific expense not listed in this agreement. If a new negotiation for sale price must occur due to lower-than-expected appraisals, and if the sale is terminated due to inability to reach a new sale price agreement, only the $4000 Accountant Business Valuation Fee would apply and still must be paid in full at 20% by all parties indicated.

In consideration of the expenses to be incurred by the Buyer, the Company and each of its shareholders agree as follows:

- Throughout the period that begins on the date of this letter and ends on May 15, 2022 (the "Exclusivity Period"), the Company will not, and will cause each of its shareholders, representatives and agents not to, directly or indirectly, solicit, initiate, seek or encourage any inquiry, proposal or offer from, furnish any information to, or participate in any discussions or negotiations with, any person (other than Buyer or any person on Buyer's behalf) regarding any acquisition of the Company or any of its capital stock, assets or business, in whole or in part, except sales of inventory in the ordinary course of the Company's business. The Company will, and will cause each of its shareholders, representatives and agents to, immediately terminate all such discussions or negotiations that may be in progress as of the date hereof.
- Throughout the Exclusivity Period, the Company will give to Buyer full and free access to the Company and its personnel, properties, contracts, books and records and all other documents and data.
- Throughout the Exclusivity Period, the Company will operate its business in the ordinary course, consistent with past practices, and refrain from any extraordinary transaction.

Parties agreeing to the above business/real property sale terms, seller's note terms, and expense sharing terms, please sign below:

Danielmark's Brewery Layout and Design

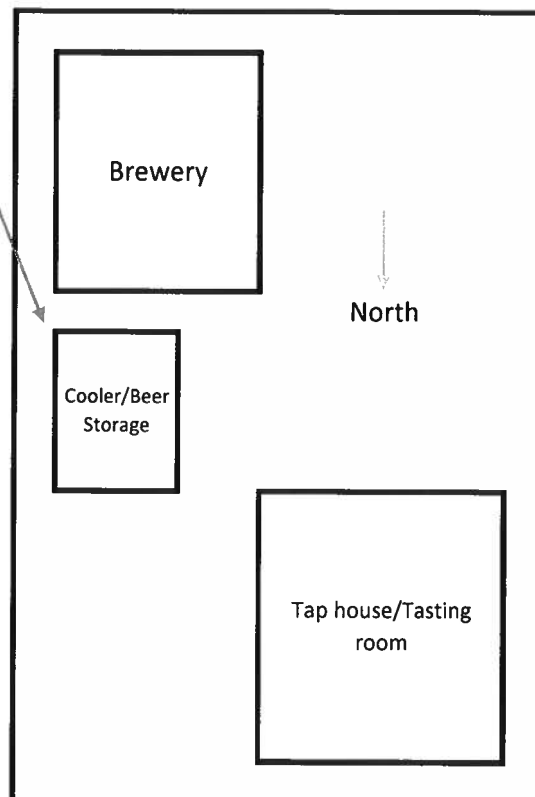

Enlarged

Beer Cooler and Storage

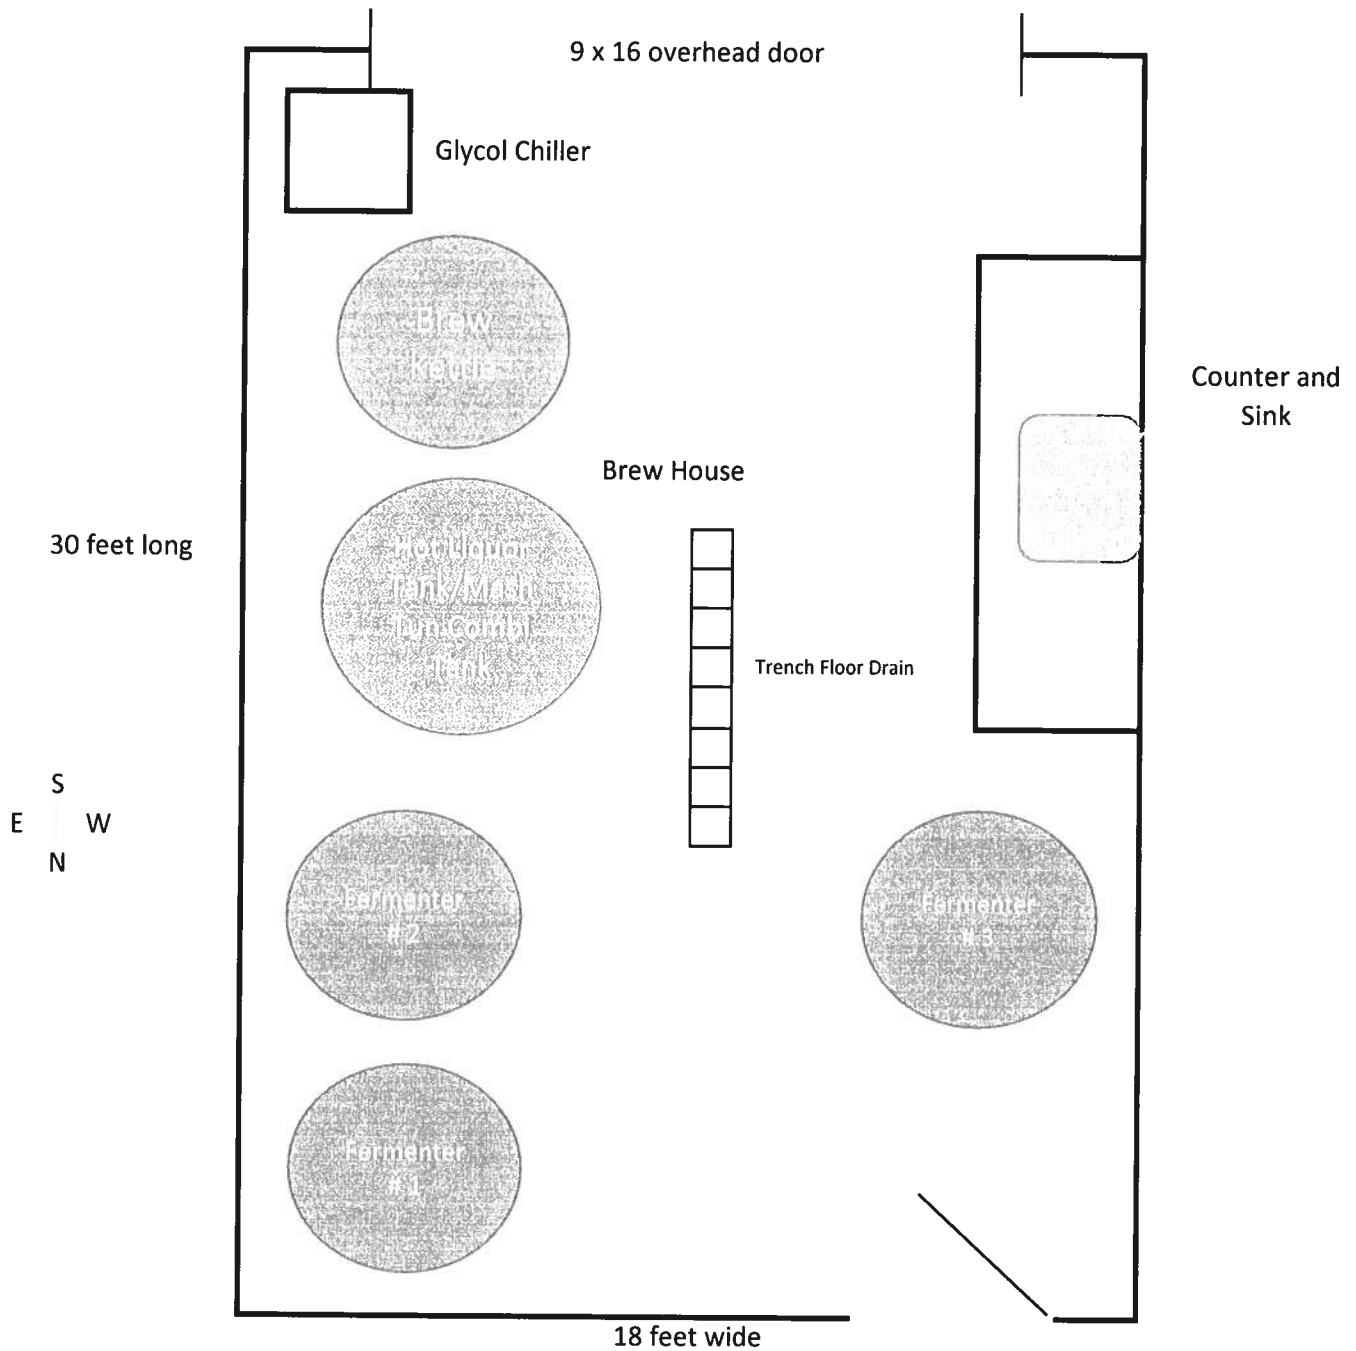

Property Layout

An insulated and cooled beer ambilical line is ran through a 6 inch conduit that connects the walk in cooler to the tasting room. The beer ambilical is made of beer line and glycol cooling tubing.

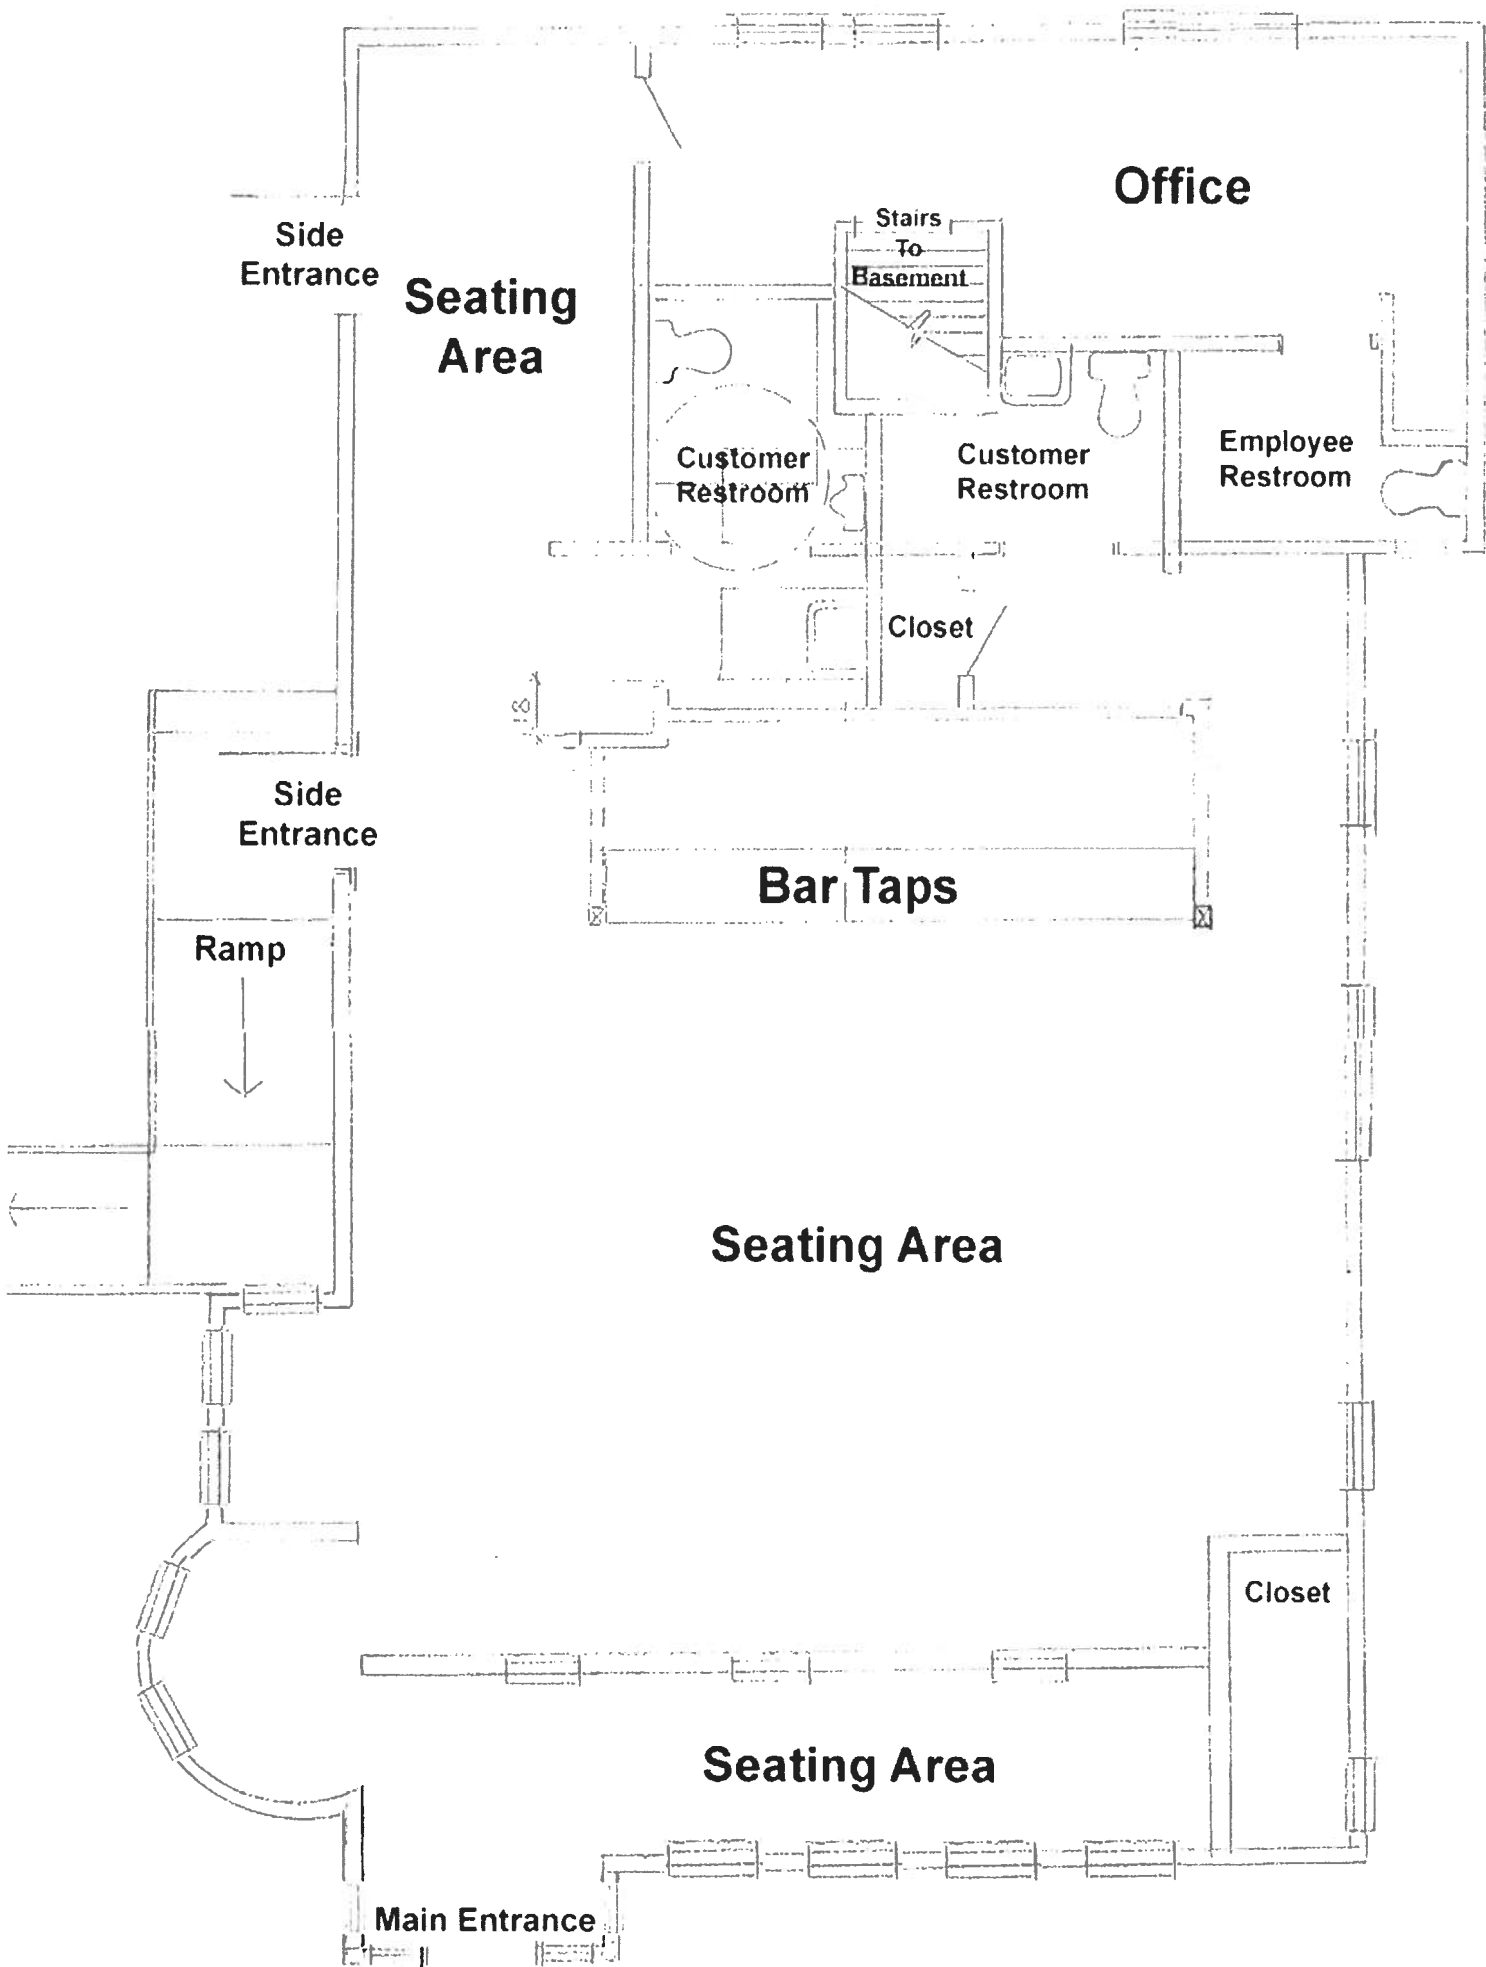

Beer that is finished but not yet carbonated (green beer) is transferred to the serving tanks in the walk in cooler using small pumps and hoses.

Once beer is ready to serve in the cooler, pressurized CO2 gas forces the bright beer to the dispensing taps in the tasting room through beer line tubing.

Mayor Collins and Members of the Cheyenne City Council
City of Cheyenne
2101 O'Neil Avenue
Cheyenne, WY 82001

Dear Mayor Collins and Members of the Cheyenne City Council,

We wish to come before you in the coming weeks to present our application to obtain a microbrewery license so that we may operate as Blue Raven Brewery at the location formerly known as Danielmark's Brewing Company, located at 209 E. 18th Street in the downtown area. Our plans are to provide a safe and friendly environment for socialization for the whole family, while fostering good relations with our neighbors, fellow community members, and visitors to Cheyenne. We will carry on the tradition of providing a venue for charitable events, food live music, food trucks, trivia and game nights, so that we may do our part in enhancing the entertainment offerings downtown.

To include one of the prior owners, all of the employees which worked at Danielmark's have decided to stay on at Blue Raven Brewery. Also, here are short backgrounds for each of the Blue Raven Brewery owners:

Ryan Willson has been the brewer at Danielmark's for the past 3+ years with about 6 years of professional brewing experience. Not only does he love living in Cheyenne and plans to stay indefinitely, his wife Sara, who was born and raised in here, is an art teacher. Their roots in our community continue to grow every day with every beer imbibed and student taught.

Kevin Tighe was born and raised in Cheyenne. He's currently a fireman/paramedic of 15 years and has also been employed at Danielmark's as a bartender for the past 3 years. Amy, his wife of 15 years, is an English teacher in Cheyenne, and together they have a ten-year-old daughter who loves life and playing hockey. Watching their child play at Danielmark's with other children has been wondrous for them, and continuing to foster this family atmosphere at the establishment for their child to enjoy is highly important to them.

Richard Hart moved to Cheyenne in 2012 for his final assignment in the Air Force. For 20 years, Richard's primary duties were to repair and calibrate medical equipment. Richard's girlfriend, Michelle, is the manager of the downtown Starbucks location, who plans to dive in and assist with bartending and scheduling live music

If you have questions, please contact us at 301-312-9471. We look forward to meeting with all of you and doing our best to be active and supportive community members and business owners in the city of Cheyenne.

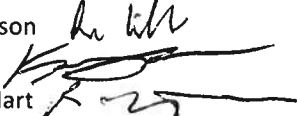

Sincerely,

THE BLUE RAVEN BREWERY TEAM

ALCOHOL SERVER TRAINING PROGRAM AT BLUE RAVEN BREWERY

- All employees and owners will be trained using the online (available at Official TIPS Alcohol Certification Site | eTIPS | GETTIPS.com) or in-person version of the TIPS training program.
- All certificates for training will be maintained as a hard copy as well as in our electronic database
- We will track training dates and certification expirations using our web-based database tools, and any employee within 3 months of expiration will be routinely reminded to refresh their training and provide a new certificate.
- Any employee that allows their certification to expire will no longer be allowed to serve and will not be scheduled to work until their training is refreshed.
- If there are any questions about our proposed alcohol serving training program, please contact Richard Hart at 301-312-9471.
